

Partner-Managing Director ⁽¹⁾ | Consulting

Pickering Energy Partners is committed to expanding its presence as an authoritative voice across the entire energy value chain. Our clients are companies and investors in the traditional and energy transition sectors. We are seeking a highly-motivated individual for a Partner-Managing Director position in our Consulting business in Houston. The ideal candidate will have a foundational understanding of the energy industry (traditional oil and gas as well as alternative energy), be comfortable interacting directly with clients, and possess exceptional analytical problem-solving capabilities.

Primary responsibilities include, but not limited to:

- Manage and lead a Consulting team in the problem-solving process required to accomplish the client's goals, which may include:
 - Assist companies in asset due diligence
 - Analyze and provide input or guidance on client's strategic initiatives
 - Analyze a company's ESG activities and develop a strategy
 - Evaluation of client investments both private and public
- Clearly articulate, communicate and present results of analysis to team and client formally and informally, including through the preparation and presentation of reports, models, memorandums, and presentations
- Interact with senior management, team members, internal and external legal counsel, accounting, operations, investment custodians, external advisors and other consultants in the course of conducting responsibilities
- Contribute to research, development, and launch of new consulting capabilities and business ideas
- Lead new business development and marketing efforts
- Train, guide and mentor consulting team members as appropriate

Prerequisites:

- At least 15 years of full-time consulting, engineering, private equity, investment banking, energy industry or equivalent experience
- Advanced degree from accredited university required in relevant field
- Energetic, self-motivated and an ability to perform under pressure and meet time sensitive deadlines
- Solid understanding of the life cycle of consulting projects
- Proven problem-solving skills with ability to quickly process complex information
- Consistently delivers exceptional results and great ideas, working independently and as part of a team
- Ability to manage multiple project streams and teams at the same time
- Strong track record of new business origination and negotiation
